INTERESTING CARMEL

Interesting things about Carmel

CARMEL THEATRE

The Theatre of the Golden Bough. Call it the Carmel Theatre if you wish but the atmosphere of its first name still clings. In its 400 restful wicker chairs, in its rich artistic walls, in its heavy floor coverings, it is of all things redolent of the spirit of Carmel. This unique show house was built by Edward G. Kuster to further the Little Theatre movement, but it was built too well and was desired by the large picture corporations for a movie show and consequently Mr. Kuster leased it for that purpose allowing the little theatre work to be carried on at the Community Play house. Strangers are impressed with the entrance to this theatre, set back some fifty to sixty feet from the walk with a large tree just in front of the door through which the moonlight comes in a soft glow.

Aside from the beauty of the theatre, the building is also unique in lighting system, there being 163 circuits, by which are thrown colored lights, bright lights and dim, to all parts of the theatre. And though they have no connection with the building, the two huge projection machines owned by the leasing company are vast ly interesting in themselves, as well as the rubberized perforated screen on which the pictures are thrown. When talking pictures came in, according to Manager J. A. Kunzman, it was found that the old style closely woven screen muffled the sound and necessarily invented the new type.

GEORGE SIDENECK'S ART CLASS

That Carmel is a village of Diers, as well as of Thinkers, is evidenced by the group of young artists working under the tutelage of George Sideneck, well-known Carmel Valley artist.

In the afternoon, Tuesday and Friday afternoon, work from models. The mediums are charcoal or oil, as each student prefers. When the weather is right, a trip is made over to the Monterey sand dunes, the favorite spot of many local artists, or to the colorful wharf, where the fishermen's tiny boats lying anchored form an always interesting pattern of color and design.

The group is small at present, and Mr. Sideneck will have to keep it limited in size until more adequate quarters can be found.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR ROSE GLORIA HERRON

Little Rose Gloria Herron was only one year old last Sunday but she had her birthday party just the same. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herron of the Viennese Shop, decorated their home at San Carlos and Fourth in lovely spring flowers and the guest of honor was dressed in a peasant frock from Vienna.

Among those who gathered to pay their respects to the young lady were: Herbert Heron, Mr. and Mrs. Sideneck, Edward Weston, Miss Sonia Noskovik, Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Heffling and son, Peter, Miss Carla Edson, Miss Mary Ingels, Mrs. Paul Hill and daughter, Harriett, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hobbs. Delicious refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Herron.

OREGON MAN ARRESTED ON FELONY CHARGE

San Francisco police, and Portland police vied with each other for the capture of Anthony Corbett, wanted in the city on charges of writing bad checks and in Portland for two indictments of felony.

Corbett was arrested here by Chief of Police Gus Englund who took him to jail in Salinas, after storing his car in a Carmel garage. An officer came from San Francisco Sunday and returned with the prisoner, who, it is said, will be sent on to Portland, after he has been tried in the City.

Mrs. Rose Littlewood Aden, writer under the name of Rose Potter, and her business manager, Francis Demar, who have been in one of the Hill cottages for the past month, leave this week for the South Sea Islands.

"NO CONTEST" SAY MRS. RENDTORFF'S SUPPORTERS

Because some of Mrs. Rendtorff's supporters talked with Attorney Campbell as to the regularity or irregularity of some things which happened at the polls here Friday, Carmel came into some notoriety.

The Carmel Sun reporter talked with a number of the persons who were alleged to have started a contest and all emphatically denied that any such action had been contemplated.

Mrs. Rendtorff, the defeated candidate, was very anxious that no charges should be made.

Attorney Campbell stated that most of the rumors were based on imagination.

Independents Want Protective Law

The California Retail Grocers and Merchants Association, California Retail Hardware and Implement Association, Northern California Retail Druggists Association and Allied Automotive Industries of California are definitely sponsoring Assembly Bill No. 770 introduced by Assemblyman Badham.

This bill is an act prohibiting the sale of merchandise below cost and construes the term "cost" as applied to production as including the cost of raw materials, labor and all necessary overhead expenses plus a reasonable profit; and as applied to distribution "cost" shall mean the cost of the article or product and the cost of doing business plus a reasonable profit.

This bill will abolish much of the malicious sale of merchandise below cost now going on throughout the state.

The Association asks its merchant members to write individual letters to their Assemblyman, Capitol Building, Sacramento.

The association pages on the information that the Riley Plan has passed the Senate, and all opposition to this measure must be directed to the Assemblyman. This bill provides for sale tax upon the merchant, which in most cases he has no means of passing on to the consumer. In the opinion of the directors of the above organizations, the plan presented by Assemblyman Flegenbaum which will be passed if the Riley Plan fails, is a much better plan and is fair to the Independent Merchant.

VILLAGE BULLETIN BOARD INTRIGUING

Perhaps it's little hard on the newspaper want and found columns, but it's rather interesting at that—the bulletin board on Dolores which seems to be growing by leaps and bounds. A "found" Tuesday was advertised without a word, a lady's slipper hanging by its high heel and making its mute appeal to be returned to owner—no questions asked.

Lost handbags head the list, then come glasses, rings, bracelets, a scarf, a kitten and a dog.

It's interesting, but Carmel Sun ads bring results.

JUNIOR ASSOCIATES TO GIVE BALLOON DANCE

It is going to be a dance you'll remember, that given by the Junior Manzanitas tomorrow (Friday) night at the club house.

Ralph James informed a Carmel Sun reporter that this would be a "Balloon Dance" and that other features of entertainment were also being planned.

This will be the third of the series and since they get better all the time, this one promises to be the best yet.

Maurice Stoney will be there with his high hat.

CAST, FRIENDS ENJOY DANCE SATUDAY NIGHT

The cast of "Ladies of the Jury" attended a dance at the green room Saturday night, which was a most enjoyable affair. Maurice Stoney's High Hatters furnished the music. Among those present were: Helen Ware, Dr. and Mrs. Matske, Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Armstrong, Herbert Heron, Ruby Fraley, Harriet Stoney, Gret Schoeninger, Gordie Campbell, Jim Hopper, Speck Turner, and Paul Taylor. Some groups of vacationing students were also present.

The highlight of the evening was an impromptu dance by Helen Ware and Ross Cowan, encouraged by Dr. Matske and Bert Heron.

Large Crowd Hears City Council Debate Beer and Wine Ordinance

At the regular meeting of the city council Wednesday evening, the question of a new ordinance repealing the "Little Volstead Act" was discussed, and after much talking by those of the audience, an ordinance was given its first reading which allows the transportation and possession of beer. The second reading will be given the 12th and published the 14th, and the law will be active three days thereafter.

A clause was inserted in the new ordinance making it unlawful to drink beer in public places, which were defined as beaches, parks, streets, school grounds, etc.

The question of the sale of beer in Carmel will be put to the vote of the people. Two questions will be answered by the voters: Shall the beer or wine be sold wrapped in packages by Carmel stores? Shall beer or wine be sold by restaurants, hotels, etc. with meals?

Minutes were read of the called meeting last Friday at which time the beer question was also brought up and discussed and no decision reached. An application from E. H. Ewig was read at the time for permission to sell the new beer.

A letter was read from Congressman McGrath saying that he felt sure Carmel would be able to plan her own style of architecture for the new post office building.

Wednesday night an application was made for the removal of two half-grown pine trees from the street in front of the Episcopal church. It was also decided to cut a leaning tree in that vicinity which is considered a menace to safety.

Applications for permission to sell beer and light wines were received from the Leidy Grocery and the Market Del Mar.

A communication from the governing body of the Community church was read asking that the council not allow the sale of beer in Carmel.

IMPROVEMENTS AT LEIDIG STORE TO START SOON

Remodeling of the building now occupied by Leidig's Grocery will begin very soon, according to Mrs. Florence Leidig who went to San Jose last Thursday and signed a five year lease, carrying with it specifications for many changes.

As stated in Carmel Sun previously, a new floor will be laid and made on one level, shelves will be torn out and replaced by new low shelves from which the customer may make his own selection; partitions will be torn out; the back part now used as a store room will be used as a part of the main floor and a store room will be built at the rear. The front will be equipped with a folding door equipped with folding doors so that the whole front may be opened to serve as an open air market.

Henry Chisler, who has been employed part time by Mrs. Leidig will be put on full time to care for the increased patronage which Mrs. Leidig expects with her new equipment.

PAUL GRAY AND MISS ETHEL SINKO WEDDED

Paul Gray, of Oakland, son of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Gray of Dolores and Seventh, and Miss Ethel Sinko, Oakland, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 11:30 at the Del Monte chapel, with the Rev. Ernest Bradley, rector of the chapel officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the groom's parents.

The Grays have hosts of friends in Carmel who join in wishing a long and happy married life to the newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray will live in Oakland, where Mr. Gray has a position.

ELECTION RESULTS IN VICTORY FOR EWIG

School election held here Friday resulted in the election of E. H. Ewig, he having received 544 votes against Mrs. Emma Rendtorff's 404.

Excitement ran rather high throughout the day and about 75 percent of the registered voters came to the polls.

Mr. Ewig made pledges of economy and for the maintenance of the high standard of the schools and he now has the chance to do a great deal toward uniting the factions which unfortunately exist on the school question.

Mrs. Rendtorff's statement will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Carmel Sun.

Mayor Catlin stated his idea emphatically that after the state legislates, the voters of Carmel should be allowed to state their wishes by their vote and that the majority should rule.

Councilman Jordan asked of a speaker the following question: "If prohibition has not prohibited, why do people think with the coming of legal beer many more hops will be raised, many more barrels sold, etc.?"

He was given the answer that "Then," said Councilman Heron, liquors had been shipped in. "You wish to destroy the shipping industry?"

It was brought out that $200 or maybe less would be required for the election.

Councilman Kellogg gave a plea for keeping Carmel dry, stating that resorts must be careful, since often conditions were brought about by outsiders who had no real interest in the city's welfare.

A bill allowing for transportation and possession was declared necessary to protect citizens on the Point, outside of the city limits, who might wish to bring beer in from other points and have no way of reaching their homes except through Carmel.

The meeting lasted until after midnight. Many speeches were made both for and against the "Little Volstead Act", nine of which were by Frank Sheridan.

It was suggested that Carmel had already stated its views in voting 63 per cent against the Wright Act, but one spokesman said that meant nothing as she had voted against that but was still unwilling to have liquors placed before the Carmel boys and girls.

Many personal remarks were hurled at the councilmen and many accusations of hypocrisy brought. Mayor Catlin stated that those who were wet thought everybody else was wet and those who were dry thought all Carmel was dry.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS READING OF PLAY

With Mrs. Charles Van Orden of Palo Alto as guest speaker, the Woman's club held another of their interesting meetings at the club house Monday afternoon. Mrs. Van Orden read that laughable play, "Dinner at Eight", written by Edna Ferber and George Kauffman.

The subject of cooperation with the merchants on the Carmel Dollar situation was brought up and the members were urged to ask for these certificates when receiving change at the stores. Mrs. Rendtorff, the president, who is a member of the Unemployment commission, told of the good work these dollars were doing to aid the needy.

Contributions of old linen were called for by Miss Agnes Williston in behalf of a group of Carmel women who have been rolling bandages for lepers and need more material for their work.

Hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. Elizabeth Titus, Mrs. Calvin Meade, Mrs. W. E. Heathorne, Mrs. C. J. Ryland and Mrs. Weber.

Arrangements were made for a pilgrimage to Pebble Beach under guidance of the garden section this (Thursday) morning at 10 a. m.

CARMEL IN LIMELIGHT WITH ARTISTS BALL

Carmel has again made the front page of the Examiner. This time announcement is made of a ball to be given by the artists and "arty" of this city on April 28.

It is proclaimed that admission will be by invitation only (plus $5 per head).

"It will be an all night affair," said one committeeman, "and we will all eat and be merry."

GROUP OF NEWSPAPER PEOPLE HERE WEEK-END

Group of employees of the San Francisco Chronicle were in Carmel over the week-end, spending their vacation at La Ribera Hotel. In the party were: Miss Mosselle Milliken, advertising agent for Hotel Whitcomb and the William Taylor; Mrs. E. L. Leonard, the "Ninon", who writes of the fashions; Miss M. V. McDonald, the "Diana", who writes "Little Notes of Big Importance"; Mrs. Dorothy Fanan, Miss Marjorie D. Brown, Miss Zilfa Estcourt and the Misses Hazel and Jackie Manfield.

POSITION IN CIVIL SERVICE NOW OPEN

The United States Civil Service Commission will accept applications until April 25 for the position of transportation rate clerk (passenger) to fill a vacancy in the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

The salary is $2,000 a year, less a deduction not to exceed 15 per cent as a measure of economy, and a retirement deduction of 3 1-2 per cent.

Applications must have had at least three years of experience in positions in which the duties performed required them to become thoroughly conversant with various rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Foster Glee Club Draws Big Crowd

The Community church was filled Sunday night when the Fenton Foster Glee club gave their annual program. Each number was so enjoyable that it was with difficulty the audience refrained from applause, as requested on the programs.

The special numbers sung by Marie Campbell deRiemer, accompanied by Ruth Bingham Herman were delightful, particularly the two new numbers composed by Mrs. Herman herself.

Mr. Foster has some wonderful voices in his club and has the facility for direction so that all the finer shades of meaning are felt by his listeners.

Ray Paulsen, Ernest Smith, Paul Winslow.

RUSSIAN PAINTER IS STOPPING IN CARMEL

Benjamin Vaganov, a Russian artist, and his bride of six months are stopping in Carmel for awhile in their palatial home on wheels. They are living in the vacant lot across from the Forge in the Forest.

Mr. Vaganov is a friend of Colonel Jadovay and the two had not met since they were fighting against the Reds in Siberia.

The artist is exhibiting his pictures at the Russian Tea Room. Most of them are California scenes. He was one of three Russians who exhibited at the State Fair in Sacramento, the other two being Peter and Gleb Ilyn.

Mr. Vaganov has most interesting things, and his system of handling is quite unique, since he uses his palette knife instead of brushes yet is able to put in minute details.

You will enjoy seeing this exhibition and you will enjoy the Vaganovs themselves.

GAME REFUGE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

A Monterey peninsula game refuge bill introduced by Senator Edward H. Tickle of Carmel was passed by the senate this week.

The area is bounded on the south by Mal Paso Creek, on the east by Rancho Canada de la Segunda, on the west by Rancho Saucito, and on the north by Rancho Noche Buena.

SUNSET BALL TEAM BRING HOME BACON

Sunset ball team, No. 1, were victors Friday when they met the Del Monte team at Seaside in a score of 21 to 1. The boys did some excellent work and are rather pleased with having won both the games of the conference so far played this season.

The second team won from San Carlos on the home diamond Monday in a score of 9 to 8. This game was closely contested and was nip and tuck throughout, both teams being evenly matched.

The next game will be played against Old Monterey and the Sunset team will have to get down to business as they will have real competition there.

LA COLLECTA CLUB HOLD REGULAR MEETING

La Collecta club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Morgan and enjoyed another social hour and program, with twelve members present.

Mrs. D. E. Nixon gave an interesting paper on "Trees", telling of the different varieties, where they grow and what they produce, etc., while Mrs. Inez Warren read "Birds" by Stanley Carroll.

Each member responded to roll call with a poem on birds or trees. Mrs. O. A. Holm brought the origin and lore of the month of April.

Delicious refreshments were served.

MAYOR CATLIN HAS OLD TIME MINER'S PICKS

Earl Wermuth returned home a few days ago from Mariposa county where he had been prospecting. He brought with him from the mining section in that county an old prospector's pick, which he presented to Mayor Catlin. Mr. Catlin estimates the pick is more than fifty years old. Mr. Catlin also has an old time hand pick, which he said the miners used when they walked and prospected. The pick presented to him by Mr. Wermuth is the kind a prospector carried when he took his burro along to carry the load for him.

OLD TIME RESIDENT HAS PASSED AWAY

Carmel friends are saddened by the death of William Trinkler, of San Jose, member of the firm of Trinkler and Dohrman.

Mr. Trinkler spent a great deal of his time here at his cottage on San Antonio and Twelfth and will be greatly missed by many.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT CARMEL HIGHLANDS

In the lovely garden at the home of Dr. Margaret Leveck in the Highlands, a beautiful wedding ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon at five o'clock which united in marriage Mr. Ralph K. Paine of Glendale and Miss George L. Mooney, both of San Jose.

Miss Mooney has a great many friends in Carmel.

The simple ring service was performed by the Rev. Willis G. White, in the presence of a few friends.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will live at Kettleman Hills, Mr. Paine being an employee of the Standard Oil Company, and stationed at that point.

INDEPENDENT MERCHANTS ASK COUNTY BUSINESS

Representatives of the Independent Merchants of the Peninsula went before the county board at Salinas Monday and asked to have all county relief and other supplies come through independent merchants.

They claimed that most of this business is now to the chain stores.

The association of more than 350 stores was represented by William Hargis of Salinas. Among other members with him were Charles Cassin, F. B. Norton, C. L. Schaff, Ed Simpson, Ronald Vining and Chandler Stewart.

MRS. GORDON MOORE SUES FOR DIVORCE

Word comes to Carmel Sun that Mrs. George Gordon Moore has entered suit for divorce at Reno, Nevada. Both are well known in Carmel, Mr. Moore having a large ranch in the valley and Mrs. Moore living at Pebble Beach.

SPORTS NEWS of the WEEK

Abalone League Playing Fast Games

By Doc Staniford
Fred Godwin pitched a great game for the Peninsula Club and shut out the heavy hitting Del Monte Club. He allowed only five hits and some at that were lucky ones and when he finished his day's performance the score board was Peninsula 9, Del Monte 0. Fred also batted 1000 per cent and drove in a flock of runs, so after all it was just too much Godwin as far as the Del Monte Club was concerned. The Peninsula Club started right off in the first inning to score four runs, one in the third, three more in the fifth and their final tally in the sixth. The Del Monte batters were mowed down with the precision of a machine gun. They were just presented with a row of goose eggs that ought to hold them over until Easter Sunday at least. Other members did their share—Glenn Leidig, Dick Catlett, Winsor Josslyn and Harry Brownell all hit hard and timely and made this contest a very one sided affair. Sunday's victory gives them a tie for first place with Del Monte and if Godwin keeps up his good work it will be just too bad for the rest of the teams in the race in this League. All four teams are still in the race and right now it will be a regular cat and dog fight to tell who will come out on top.

The Manzanita Club cleaned up on the Polo Club. For a while this game looked like a cross between a six day bicycle race and a Dueth picnic. Poor fielding and stupid base running by the Polo Club didn't help their team while the Manzanita Club did some very heavy hitting and bunched their hits well. So when this hectic affair was over, Manzanita stood 20 and the Polo Club 5. Ivan Kelsey lead his team in batting getting five hits out of five times at bat, closely followed by Don Chew and Hilbert with four each. Gordy Campbell and Dick Catlett starred in the field with spectacular catches. Gordy Campbell made a wonderful catch of a line drive which started a triple play. The bases were loaded at the time and this killed off the final rally of the Polo Club. Doc Slipner and Ro Roberts played well for the losing team. The comedy of the day was supplied by a gentleman known as Mr. Johnston who gave a great exhibition of a tumbling and juggling act and got lots of laughs from the spectators. So even if both contests were one sided the crowd got plenty of entertainment.

At The Point
The Pilots cleaned the League—Leading Giants 13 to 8 and moved up to lead the League themselves. The Pilots got the jump on the Giants with a big lead but got rather careless and the Giants threw a scare into them in the final innings by making a very determined effort to overtake them but Ed Files finally settled down and stopped them. The game was marred by a lot of crabbing on the part of some of the players. This sort of thing is entirely unnecessary and should not be allowed. Dr. Gray is a fair and square umpire and it is regretted very much that he should be put on the spot in this manner. The Captains of each team are the only ones who have a right to protest any decisions. The Pilots out hit the Giants and got a little better pitching and that about tells the story of the game. Steve Bancroft got a home run and Hicks, Parker and Staniford all hit well for their team. The Pilots are going good now and will be a tough team to overtake. If they beat the Shamrocks next Sunday they will almost be a cinch to win first place because the Shamrocks right now are the most dangerous rivals. The Tigers are almost a hopeless contender but strange things happen and who knows with a few breaks the tall end teams can raise hob with the hopes of leading teams.

The Shamrocks won their third straight game at the expense of the lowly Tigers. Ammerman had one of his bad days and the heavy attack of Tobiasson and Handley, and other members of the Shamrock Team, gave them a big lead and with Hilbert pitching good ball, held the Tiger batters in check all the way. So when the game was over, the final score read Shamrocks 10, Tigers 3. The Shamrocks right now will give all their rivals plenty of trouble. Hilbert's pitching has been a big factor in making the Shamrocks a vastly improved team and it is possible yet for them to overtake the Giants and give the Pilots a tough argument for the final honors.

The VOICE of the People

BEER

To beer or not to beer, that is the question that is sorely trying the Council in their endeavors to arrive at some way out of their predicament in issuing permits for the sale of the amber fluid.

Requests have come from nearly every merchant in Carmel, asking for the privilege to dispense beer.

A member of the Council refused to give the list of applicants who are desirous of profiting by its sale.

The parceling out of the Licenses is a "Dutch Puzzle" to the over-worried Council. Some of them are in business and while keeping a weather eye open for themselves they also must be lenient with their friends. Several meetings have been held, and a lot of gabbling been done, but up to date no solution has yet been reached.

By the way—What about that clause the Carmel Development Company has in all their Realty Deeds? Read and ponder.

"The foregoing sale is on the express condition that the said party of the second part, their heirs, executors, administrators, tenants, sub-tenants, lessees and assigns, and any person or persons claiming or occupying under them or either of them, said land or premises, or any part thereof, will not sell, exchange or give away intoxicating liquor of any kind thereon and will not use or employ, nor directly or indirectly suffer, allow or permit any other person or persons whatever to use or employ said land premises hereby sold or any improvements which are now or may be hereafter placed thereon, or any part thereof, for the purpose of selling, exchanging, bartering, delivering or giving away any spirituous or malt intoxicating liquors, wine or cider, and in case of breach of this covenant, second party agrees that the whole of the estate hereby granted and conveyed and any and all improvements thereon shall immediately revert to and become the property of the said party of the first part (Carmel Development Company) and the said party of the first hereby expressly reserves to itself, its successors and assigns, the right to enter upon said land and premises and to take absolute possession thereof, and of any and all improvements thereon for and upon the breach of the aforesaid conditions or any of them."

Of what then, is the use of a liquor permit with the above clause hanging over all Carmel property?

"It don't mean anything", prospective purchasers of property are told by glib realty Munchausens, but like the Prohibition act it's on documents, and until it is declared null and void, the noxious clause is a menace to all property sales in Carmel.

The Council is surely up against a knotty problem irrespective of what palliatives they or their friends may proffer. The predicament they would be in is appalling, if they grant licenses to sell beer and the Carmel Development Company sells its holdings to one who would insist in carrying out the stipulations as set forth in the Carmel Development Company realty deeds.

A few weeks ago a group of Carmel boys came to me with the complaint that the ball diamond was given over each Sunday afternoon to the Filipinos. After going over the matter, I found that such had been the case for the past two years, and that the Filipinos also had the school gym once a week.

Now there isn't a place in Carmel for our boys to play if they can't use the school grounds. They either play there or walk the streets.

After about so much trouble I was able to have the grounds reserved for our boys every other Sunday.

Since then I have been taken to task a great many times for my interest in the Carmel boys and told I should be run out of town.

I feel that if the Filipinos have the gym one night a week and the school grounds every other Sunday they are getting a square deal. I have nothing against the Filipinos but feel that our boys should have a 50-50 break.

IN APPRECIATION

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all those men and women who gave me their support during the election campaign and who voted for me at the polls. I have been very proud of the dignified manner in which the campaign was conducted and of the fair-mindedness and tolerance shown by my side.

My supporters are not obstructionists; they will always retain their interest in the school and they will be glad to co-operate wholeheartedly with those in authority for the progress and efficiency of our school.

"42nd Street" at Carmel Theatre Soon

By J. A. Kunstman

"Three good tunes and a kick in the pants for a wow blackout. Can you make a hit show with it?"

These are the first sentences in Bradford Ropes' novel, "42nd STREET", and they color the length of Warner Bros. new gigantic picture of the same name which comes to the Carmel Theatre Sunday April 9.

In the picture, the words are addressed to Warner Baxter, who plays the role of a veteran stage director with a hundred hits to his credit. What he does to the three good tunes and the kick in the pants form the basis for "42nd STREET".

But not quite all of it. Warner Bros. have gathered together in this tale of the Rialto's backstage, a gripping dramatic story of the theatre of today, of the problems, heartaches and tears, the good times, lighthearted camaraderie and carefree days, when there is money in the pocket, forty weeks more of work ahead, and nothing to worry about, all of which makes up stage existence.

Chorus girls, to the number of about one hundred and fifty stars, directors, singers, and song writers, hoofers, crooners, comics, hee-hees, juveniles and ingenues—they're all there. Warner Baxter, Bebe Daniels, Geo. Brent, Una Merkel, Ruby Keeler, Guy Kibbee, Ned Sparks, Dick Powell, Ginger Rogers and Geo. E. Stone and a dozen of others.

There can't be very much that's seriously wrong with this old world when there are pictures like "42nd Street" to be enjoyed. A few more pictures like this and what we've laughingly been calling "the depression" will be over before we can say "Hello Prosperity".

"42nd Street" play at the Carmel Theatre Sunday and Monday April 9 and 10, with a special Matinee on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman Jr. with Misses Eloise Hawkins and Helen Ramming recently spent two weeks vacation in Carmel, stopping at Hotel La Ribera. Mr. F. Zimmerman Jr. is a student at Stanford and the Misses Hawkins and Ramming are attending Mills College in Oakland.

DIED FRIDAY NIGHT

Carmel was shocked and saddened Friday to learn of the death of one of her prominent citizens, Charles Robert Aldrich.

Mr. Aldrich, 56 years of age, appeared in splendid health Friday but was stricken with a heart attack and died suddenly near midnight at his home at Ninth and San Antonio.

The deceased was well known writer and psychologist. Although he received his education in American schools he went abroad for several years and studied with Jung in Switzerland. He was a native of Indiana, a son of Charles Aldrich, solicitor general in the Cleveland administration.

Mrs. Aldrich's best known book was "The Primitive Mind and Modern Civilization." He was a contributor to several of the high class magazines.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon and the body taken to Santa Cruz for cremation.

His widow, Mrs. Wilma Aldrich, survives him.

"LADIES OF THE JURY"

HUGE SUCCESS

"Ladies of the Jury", as presented by the Carmel Community Players last week proved to be one of the biggest successes of their season.

The scintillating Helen Ware played the part of Mrs. Livingston Baldwin Crane, a wealthy society matron with a flair for managing situations and people. She played with a verve and animation that alone would have carried the play to success.

In true feminine fashion, Mrs. Crane, after two days and two nights of wheeling, coaxing, scolding, petting and cajoling, managed to sway her eleven fellow jurors completely to her side, and thus secured the freedom of the little French widow.

She was ably supported by Sibyl Leonard, as Yvet Gordon, widow, on trial for the murder of her husband, Galt Bell, the defense attorney, Gordon Knoles, the prosecuting attorney, and many others.

Virginia Rockwell, who played the part of Mrs. Pratt, a trim, straight-laced, small town housewife, deserves special praise for a fine characterization; the more so in view of the fact that she had but two days in which to rehearse the part.

The usual colorful peninsula crowd composed the audience of the first night. There were many beautifully gowned women present and the atmosphere was one of appreciation of the efforts of the Carmel Community Players.

Misses Hazel Watrous and Dene Denny are enjoying this week by taking a tour through the northern part of the state and into Oregon. They will visit the latter's mother while away. Miss Sonya Noskoviak is caring for the gallery during their absence.

BADMINTON

A TYPICAL RALLY

By Leslie I. Nichols

Play by play this is the sort of rally the gallery will see at the state championships Easter week-end Saturday and Sunday, April 15 and 16 in Monterey.

One of the players has hit a "high clear" (in tennis a lob). His opponent stands waiting for the bird to descend, then reaches high and delivers a terrific smash, the kind that travels so fast there is no more than a white blur.

On the other side of the net the player brings his racket down close to the floor and with wrist muscles alone taps it back so that it barely clears the net. The smasher dashes forward and with a desperate lunge flicks the bird up again almost as it touches the floor.

The bird rises scarcely to the top of the net, hovers, and topples over, feathers faintly brushing the tape, and drops swiftly—a perfect "dink", most difficult and deadly of shots. Opponents make the impossible play, reaches the ungettable shot and with steely wrist-snap tosses the bird high in the air for a long "clear" to the back line. The man across the net races back, turns, is ready to deliver another terrific smash. Opponent is set to block it, but almost at the instant the hurtling racket meets the bird, the power-play is converted into a wrist action stroke that deflects the shuttlecock to side of the court, clearing the net, and diving at a sharp angle, in bounds but out of reach, a point well won.

MEN VISITING CARMEL

Jack Thomas and Jerald Elwood two young men of San Francisco, who are at the head of the Repertoire Theatre, at 74 Commercial street, are spending this week in Carmel. In speaking with a Carmel Sun reporter, Mr. Elwood said, "We are following no precedent, but are doing the plays in the way we think they should be done. We have 110 subscribers, each subscription embracing three people. Our theatre seats only 52 persons, and we try to hold each play down to six performances".

The players, who number thirty, have recently finished "Volpone" by Johnson, and so great was the number who insisted on seeing the presentation they were compelled to extend the time.

They have presented many of the early Japanese plays and are at great pains to have the costumes of the early periods exact.
